

NYCDDC On Call A/E Services for Library Renovations

Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, NY – Historic Landmark Building

Working as subconsultant to Richard Dattner & Partners, AG provided MEP engineering and construction phase services for various library renovation/rehabilitation projects throughout NYC.

Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, NY – Historic Landmark Building

AG provided renovation of the building, specifically cellar, first floor, and mechanical penthouse that included complete electrical and mechanical services, HVAC, replacing old units and providing new units to accommodate stack rooms, archives and special collection rooms by controlling temperature and relative humidity, library including new chiller, 130 ton cooling tower, lighting, power, security, plumbing, fire protection design. Fire protection services including reactive system for stack room and provide wet system in gallery.

West New Brighton Library, NY

AG provided MEP design services for the renovation of building. Services include new electrical design, new lighting, new outdoor ornamental lighting, mechanical, plumbing and drainage work.

Washington Heights Branch Library, NY

The Washington Heights Branch Library is an existing four-story facility with lower level, first, second and third floor. The total area of the facility is approximately 23,000 sq. ft. AGCE provided MEP design services for the comprehensive restoration of the facility. The program included meeting ADA compliance. Services included new electrical design, new lighting, mechanical, plumbing and fire protection systems.

Location:

New York, NY

Owner:

NYC Department of
Design & Construction

Services Provided:

Mechanical

Electrical

Plumbing

Fire Protection

Security

A.G. CONSULTING ENGINEERING, PC

A.G. Consulting Engineering, PC

131W 33rd Street, 12B

New York, NY 10001

Phone: 212-268-0950

agceng@agceng.com